OUR MISSION

EQUIPPING THE SAINTS FOR THE WORK OF THE MINISTRY

“And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, “ Ephesians 4:11-13a

WHO ARE WE

The Lord has given this ministry an Apostolic and Prophetic Mantle and anointing. our motto is “Ministry With Influence And Purpose”. We honor the call to excellence and strategize together as Iron that sharpens Iron.

JOY Alliance is an international ministry built to effect a positive difference in the lives of individuals, by ministering to the “total man”, growing them in Spirit, Health and Wealth. We teach, train and impart the Word of GOD for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry and for the edifying of the Body of Christ.

At JOY Alliance our goal is to be a catalyst for more dreams to be realized and more lives to be improved. We help people work together towards a more empowered and satisfying life through the principles of GOD’s Word. We believe that our efforts to impact and bring about transformational change can and will make a huge difference in the world .

WHAT WE BELIEVE

- We believe in and are guided by the Bible (the holy and divinely authored word of God.)
- We believe in the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; that He was come in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.
- We believe in the Holy Spirit and accept Him as the third part of the trinity; our comforter who leads and guides us into all truth.
- We believe in the gifts of the Spirit, the fruit of the Spirit and the offices of the Spirit; the manifestation of which enables us to be holy as Christ our Savior is holy and perfects the effectual working of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
- We believe and have faith in God our Father as the witness of righteousness. Gen 15:6
- We believe that every believer has to be born again of the water and of the Spirit.
- We believe that you are chosen to see the manifestation of the Kingdom of the Lord God Almighty come into your life

The Five-Fold Ministry Welcome from THE APOSTLE

Please Speak With expression as you are speaking for those in the office of Apostle

The word Apostle comes from the Greek word “apostolos,” which means one who is sent; a delegate carrying the authority of the sender. So, when we speak of Apostles in the Kingdom of God, we are talking about sent ones, those commissioned by Heaven to establish God's plans, advance His Kingdom, and build what has never been built before.

Apostles are the visionaries and dreamers of the Kingdom. We are trendsetters, trailblazers, and pioneers who light the way for others. God gives us divine blueprints, strategies, and revelations, not just to see the future, but to create pathways into it.

We are the groundbreakers. Apostles are sent to forge new territory for the Kingdom of God, to take spiritual land that has not yet been claimed and to plant the flag of Heaven. We clear the spiritual debris, the obstacles, the traditions, and the resistance, so that the rest of the Five-Fold Ministry gifts have a firm foundation upon which to build.

The apostolic anointing is a building anointing. It establishes, governs, and aligns. Apostles are master builders in the Spirit, much like the Apostle Paul describes in 1 Corinthians 3:10 (KJV): “According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon.”

Being an Apostle is about vision and people. The Apostle sees what could be and then equips others to become what God intended them to be. We carry a unique gift for awakening potential, helping people discover their God-given identity and calling. We do not just cast vision; we impart destiny.

Apostles walk beside others on their journey toward spiritual maturity, guiding, nurturing, and releasing them into their own ministries. We do not just build churches; through the Holy Spirit, we build people, and through people, we build God's Kingdom.

Apostles are also catalysts for change. You see, an Apostle's mission is not just to start something; it is to establish something that lasts. We do not simply move from place to place; we build foundations strong enough for generations to stand upon. So, when you encounter an Apostle, you are encountering a builder of destiny, a sent one carrying Heaven's mandate.

The Five-Fold Ministry Welcome from THE PROPHET

Please Speak With expression as you are speaking for those in the office of Prophet

In the Kingdom of God, the Prophet holds a unique and sacred place among the five-fold ministry gifts: Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers, as described in Ephesians 4:11–13.

Prophets are often known as Forecasters, Commentators, Messengers, and even Heart Revealers. But hear me clearly: We are not the revealers of man's heart; we are the revealers of God's heart. Our calling is rooted in revelation, direct insight from the heart and mind of God Himself, rather than personal opinion or emotion.

Prophets take the spiritual temperature of the current climate, both in the nations of the earth and within the Body of Christ. We discern what Heaven is saying about what is happening in the earth. In a sense, we serve as Heaven's reporters, interpreting spiritual events and helping God's people align with His divine agenda.

The prophet's gift is about more than predicting the future; it is about revealing God's perspective. Wherever we go, we carry a divine assignment: to declare the mind of Christ, to comfort, to correct, and to confirm. We do not speak simply because we can; we speak because Heaven wills it.

Our voices are instruments through which God releases His plans, His warnings, His promises, and His encouragement. As Amos 3:7 (KJV) says, "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."

But perhaps the most beautiful part of the Prophet's ministry is this: We help people experience the voice of God, often for the very first time. We help others recognize that God is not silent and that He longs for fellowship and communion with His children.

We walk closely with Him in prayer and meditation. Our intimacy with God fuels our accuracy. The more time we spend in communion with Him, the more clearly we hear His heart. Prophets are not performers; we are surrendered vessels, set apart for God to express His will, His purposes, and His divine timing through us.

We are careful not to speak prematurely, for we understand that timing in prophecy is just as important as the message itself. When the Lord instructs us to speak, we speak, neither before nor after His appointed time, for we are custodians of His timing and carriers of His truth.

In essence, prophets are Heaven's messengers, sent to alert the Church to His movements and help the Body of Christ align with His purposes in the earth.

The Five-Fold Ministry Welcome from THE EVANGELIST

Please Speak With expression as you are speaking for those in the office of Evangelist

The word Evangelist means bringer of good news. Evangelists are the storytellers of the Kingdom of God. We carry the message of salvation, hope, and redemption, and we have been entrusted with the sacred mission of making Jesus known, not just inside the church, but everywhere we go.

We are not just salesmen or influencers. We are persuaders, connectors, and carriers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Evangelist's passion burns with one goal: that every soul would know the saving power of Jesus and experience His transforming love.

You could say the Evangelist is like the marketing department of the Kingdom of Heaven. We promote and proclaim the Person of Jesus Christ, the risen Savior. Our "brand" is grace. Our "message" is mercy. Our "campaign" is love. Evangelists are storytellers who make the stories of Jesus' goodness and love famous wherever we go. We speak of His miracles, His mercy, and His power to change lives. We testify of what He has done for us, and through that testimony, hearts are opened to believe that He can do it for them, too.

Our mission is not just to talk about the Good News; we live it, breathe it, and carry it into every place of darkness. As Paul declared in Romans 1:16 (KJV), "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth."

Evangelists are celebrators of transformation. We partner with Jesus in rejoicing over every lost soul that comes home. We embody the heart of Heaven described in Luke 15, where all of Heaven rejoices over one sinner who repents. That is our joy: to see people encounter Jesus for themselves.

Evangelists stir curiosity and desire in others. We awaken a hunger for more of God. Through our words and through our lives, we extend an invitation that says, "Come and see." We do not just preach sermons; we live invitations. Everywhere we go, people see, hear, and feel the love of God through us in a world that desperately needs Him.

So, when you encounter an Evangelist, you are encountering someone who lives with a fire in their bones for the Gospel, someone who carries the message of salvation with passion and conviction. Evangelists are heralds of hope and storytellers of salvation.

The Five-Fold Ministry Welcome from THE PASTOR

Please Speak With expression as you are speaking for those in the office of Pastor

In the grand tapestry of God's divine design, the Pastor serves as one of the most tender and vital threads that holds the fabric of the Kingdom together. The Pastor's role is a ministry rooted in care, guidance, and love.

Pastors are shepherds of God's people. We are entrusted with His flock, called to lead and feed them. The Pastor's anointing is the heartbeat of the local church, nurturing, guarding, and guiding the people of God toward spiritual health and maturity.

Pastors are caregivers. We are the ones who walk with believers through life's valleys and mountaintops, helping them navigate brokenness and seasons of change, while reminding them of who God is and who they are in Jesus. We are the supporters, advisors, and encouragers of the Body of Christ, those who help the wounded heal and the weary stand again.

We walk alongside God's people on their faith journey, guiding them from spiritual infancy to spiritual strength. We remind them that they are not alone, that they belong to a family, and that their lives have purpose and value in the Kingdom.

As shepherds, we carry both compassion and conviction. We tend to the flock with gentleness and discernment. We feed them with truth and lead them with integrity.

The Pastor also helps create an environment where believers can thrive, a place of safety, belonging, and joy. We foster community, family, and unity within the church. We ensure that God's house is a home where people can find peace, laughter, and love. We care for the bereaved, counsel those who seek clarity, and serve as trusted sounding boards for believers in their walk with Christ. We do not just tell people what to do; we walk with them through it.

We are fueled by a deep sense of duty, not just to keep the church running, but to maintain the spiritual health and vitality of God's family. The Pastor feels the pulse of the congregation because we live among the people, not above them, but with them. Our greatest joy is seeing God's people whole, growing, and flourishing in faith.

The Five-Fold Ministry Welcome from THE TEACHER

Please Speak With expression as you are speaking for those in the office of Teacher

Teachers are not just educators; we are the guiding stars in the vast Kingdom of God, those who bring light, direction, and understanding to the people of God. We help believers move from inspiration to revelation, from hearing the Word to living it out daily.

We wear many hats. We are trainers, researchers, coaches, mentors, and instructors, but above all, we are what I like to call “Light Givers.” In Scripture, light represents clarity, revelation, and understanding. Jesus said in John 8:12, “I am the light of the world.” When we teach, we illuminate the truth of God's Word so that believers can see clearly and walk confidently in their faith.

Our anointing is unique. It is the grace to open the Scriptures in a way that brings both revelation and rhema. Where there is confusion, we bring clarity. Where there is error, we bring correction. Where there is darkness, we bring light.

Teachers in the Kingdom are like spiritual architects. We help make clear the framework of God's Word so that others can build their lives upon it. We help believers understand the Word of God, both in theory and in practical, everyday living.

Our goal is not just to fill minds with information but to equip hearts with revelation. We do not just say, “Here is what the Word says.” We help people understand, “Here is how you live it.”

We are strategic communicators, careful with words, precise with meaning, and intentional in delivery. The Teacher's success is not measured by applause or recognition, but by application, when people can take what we have shared, as led by the Holy Spirit, and apply it to their lives with accuracy and understanding. We are the ones who bring balance to the Body, ensuring that passion is paired with principle and that zeal is rooted in knowledge. While Apostles build, Prophets proclaim, Evangelists reach, and Pastors nurture, Teachers establish. We anchor believers in the solid foundation of God's Word so that they will not be tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine.

The Teacher's ministry is one of patience and precision. We take complex truths and make them simple enough for anyone to grasp. We help believers move from milk to meat, from the basics of faith to the deeper mysteries of the Kingdom. Ultimately, our joy as Teachers is seeing the Word come alive in the hearts of those we teach.

BENEDICTION

APOSTLE DR. CHARLES E. PUGH SR.

The Occasion

WE ARE HERE

We gather here, bound by His love, claimed by His grace, for we belong to Him. His name is written upon our hearts, and we long to share it. We come in obedience to His laws and His commandments, answering the call that was placed on our lives long before we knew it. We were born with purpose, woven into His divine plan. Our mission began with life itself, a journey toward greatness, so that all glory returns to Him.

AND SO, WE ARE HERE.

What we have endured, the trials that tested us, are the very things leading us forward. The moments that threatened to break us were crafted into the tools that built us. For within us burns a strength greater than the world could ever know. The stumbling blocks we faced have become stepping stones, lifting us higher. The confusion has turned into clarity, the pain into power.

AND SO, WE STAND HERE TODAY.

We have laid down our burdens, releasing them into His hands. We have been washed in His blood, renewed in mind, body, and spirit. Now, in the presence of loved ones and friends, we stand prepared, adorned in the garments of His anointing. This is a place of holiness, His Tabernacle, where grace flows without end.

AND SO, WE ARE HERE.

By faith, we have come this far, trusting in His Word, anchored in His promise. This is our story, one of unwavering belief and blessed assurance. This is why we are here. A new horizon beckons, and we are ready. We yearn for deeper anointing, for new heights of living, giving, loving, and serving. We pursue the One who loves us beyond measure, and we are here, seeking Him.

We are children of the Father, answering His call, anticipating a renewed passion in our relationship with Him.

AND SO, WE ARE HERE,

Leaders standing upon His promises, committed fully to His will and His way.

And for all these reasons, this is the moment, the sacred occasion, for which

WE ARE HERE.

THE SACRED CALL TO MINISTRY

Called, Equipped, and Commissioned to Serve Ephesians 4:10–16

The Biblical Foundation of Our Calling and Commission

"He who descended is also the One who ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill all things. And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ— from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by that every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love."

CONSECRATION AND COMMISSION OF THE CHAPLAINS CONSECRATOR - APOSTLE DR. EILEEN H. TEEL

COMMISSIONER'S DECREE

Consecrator (TEEL):

Today, with hearts full of gratitude, we give thanks to our Father in Heaven, the source of all blessings, the giver of life, light, and love. From Him flows every good and perfect gift, each one a testament to His boundless grace and unwavering favor. It is by His divine hand that we have been called, by His mercy that we have been chosen, and by His love that we are sustained. His servants, committed to the sacred mission He has planted deep within their souls, are embraced by His purpose, destined to fulfill the work He has ordained.

And so, on this day, we stand in awe of His magnificent plan and decree that you are now commissioned to walk boldly in the fullness of your calling. With dignity, grace, and divine authority, you join the international community of KISS THE SON International Association of Chaplains. You are not merely appointed but divinely anointed to carry out His will, to serve with compassion, to lead with wisdom, and to walk in His light. You are a vessel of His love, equipped and empowered to make His presence known in this world. This is your commission, your holy charge, and we celebrate your divine appointment today.

Now may the peace of God, give you the discernment, knowledge and understanding to walk faithfully into new territories, the courage and love to do His will as the Holy Spirit shall be your lead and guide. In Jesus Name. And all the people of God Say, Amen

Hebrews 6:10–12

God Remembers Our Faithfulness

- God sees, remembers, and values every act of love and service. Nothing we do in His name goes unnoticed. Every kindness extended, every life touched, and every sacrifice made in love is precious in His sight.
- Let us continue with unwavering faith, confident hope, and joyful expectation. May the same passion that inspires us to serve also strengthen us to persevere, knowing that God's promises remain sure and His faithfulness never fails.
- We are called to a life of steadfast faith and patient endurance. Let us follow the examples of those who trusted God, remained faithful to His Word, and inherited His promises. Our journey is one of purpose, perseverance, and divine fulfillment.

Romans 12:10–13

Living a Life That Reflects God's Love

- Let our love be genuine, sincere, and deeply rooted in Christ. May goodness guide our choices, kindness shape our relationships, and brotherly affection unite us as one family in the Body of Christ.
- Let us serve the Lord with passion, enthusiasm, and spiritual fervor. May our hearts remain filled with hope, our spirits strengthened through prayer, and our faith steadfast through every season of life.
- Let us become living expressions of God's generosity and compassion. May we recognize opportunities to meet the needs of others, extend hospitality with gladness, and make room in our hearts and lives for those who need encouragement, support, and love.

Romans 12:14–21

Overcoming Through Love and Goodness

- Let our words be filled with blessings and our hearts with grace. May we respond to others with the love of Christ, extending kindness even when faced with opposition.
- Let us share in one another's joys and offer compassion in times of sorrow. May we celebrate victories together, strengthen those who are weary, and cultivate relationships grounded in humility, understanding, and unity.
- Let us recognize the God-given value in every individual. May we walk in humility, embrace people from every walk of life, and seek opportunities to demonstrate the unconditional love of Christ.
- Let peace guide our relationships and wisdom govern our responses. As we trust God with every circumstance, may we choose forgiveness over resentment, grace over retaliation, and reconciliation wherever possible.
- Let generosity become our response to adversity. When others are in need, may we be quick to extend kindness, offer provision, and demonstrate the transforming power of God's love.
- Let goodness be our victory. Through faith, love, compassion, and obedience to God's Word, we have the opportunity to overcome evil with good, allowing the light of Christ to shine through everything we do.

CONSECRATION OF THE EVANGELIST

Consecrator: Where is the confirmation of your call as an Evangelist in the body of Christ first realized?

Consecratee: The confirmation to Evangelist is first realized in MY heart.

Consecrator: Has this confirmation taken place within you?

Consecratee: Yes, this position has been confirmed by God within me as a call of in my life.

Consecrator: What is the role of the Evangelist in the Body of Christ?

Consecratee: The Evangelists are Salesmen, Influencers, Persuaders, Networkers "Story Tellers* in the Kingdom of God. They make the stories of Jesus's remarkable goodness and love famous wherever to go. They are the carrier of the good news and celebrate people's transformation. They stir curiosity and desire for others to know Jesus. Their life is a living invitation to all to join the Family of God.

Consecrator: Do you believe that this Office is necessary to the Body of Christ?

Consecratee: I believe that a congregation can thrive to its fullest potential with the Five-Fold Ministry in operation. The Scripture bears witness that through the operation of the Five-Fold Ministry will the Saints become perfected.

Consecrator: Is the Elevation for you alone?

Consecratee: No, this elevation affects the entire Body of Christ. According to Acts 10:38: How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and power...."

Consecrator: Who is the Chief Apostle?

Consecratee: (Heb 3:1 declares,) The Lord Jesus Himself is the Chief Apostle of the Church and was sent by the Father.

Consecrator Recognizing, that you have acknowledged this call in your life. We will proceed the affirmation.

CONSECRATION OF THE EVANGELIST

Consecrator: Will you be servant leader according to Jeremiah 3:15 a man/woman after God's own heart. Feeding those in your sphere of influence with knowledge and understanding?

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator: Will you (as in 2 Peter 5:2) care for those that God entrusts to your sphere of influence. Watch over them willingly, not grudgingly—not for what you will get out of it, but because you are eager to serve God.

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator: Will you be careful not to lord over the people assigned to your care, but lead them by your own good example?

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator: As a good servant/leader of Christ Jesus, there is not doubt that you will face some hardship and adversity. But, will you accept your share of the difficulties, standing with your feet planted, your mind resolute and your convictions solid and with the same zeal wherewith you were called?

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator : As good servant/leader who wants to please God, will you concentrate on the responsibility of your office and not spend your time entangled in the minutia of activities that do not represent of your calling, Keeping your mind determined to do what God has called you to do, that you may please him who entrusted you to this position?

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator: A winning athlete that competes is not crowned unless he plays and competes according to the rules. Therefore, when you are tempted with that which comes up against the rules of engagement, will you remember to declare as Jesus did "IT IS WRITTEN....." knowing God's WORD does not return void, it will accomplish that what it set out to do?

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

CONSECRATION OF THE EVANGELIST

Consecrator: Will you boldly proclaim and interpret the Gospel of Christ, enlightening the minds and stirring up the consciousness of the people?

Consecratee: I will by the Power of the Holy Spirit

Consecrator: Will you pray, meditate on and search the Scriptures daily, fast periodically as the Holy Spirit shall lead, so that you are constantly receiving from God that which is necessary in fulfilling this office to the highest degree.

Consecratee: Yes I Will, by the help of God.

Consecrator: Will you be strong and steadfast in the grace that you have because you belong to Christ Jesus. Will you take the things that you learn through the WORD of GOD and that which the Holy Spirit will teach you and impart them to the faithful who will be able to teach others also.

Consecratee: I will as God be my helper

Consecrator: Will you preach the Word in season and out of season. There will be those who try to shut you up and box you into their own understanding. However, will you encourage yourself in the Lord, push past the naysayers and the noise be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain?"

Consecratee: I will, for He is my help.

Consecrator: And finally, will you accept this call and fulfill this trust in obedience to Christ. What say you to this?

Consecratee: I will, for He is my help.

THE PRESENTATION

Family of God Please Receive Now The Prophetess Apostle

Apostolic Release

Consecrator: Apostle & Pastor Washington

“And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. “ II Corinthians 9:8

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to you, women of God, who have embraced a new chapter in the journey of your ministry. Today marks a significant moment in both your history and the unfolding of your future.

I decree and declare that on this day, God is solidifying His purpose within you. Through divine revelation, meditation, and the spoken Word, He is revealing the depth of your calling—your actions, your words, your motives, and your character are being aligned with His perfect will. God's intention for you is clear: to live victoriously and to fulfill the mission He has placed before you. As the just, you are called to live by faith. Jesus Himself said, "I came that you might have life, and have it in abundance." Today, let your eyes see yourself as God sees you. You are blessed beyond measure, your boundaries are expanded, and His hand of guidance rests upon you.

You are anointed for this path. So, step forward, beyond the limits of your own ability, and walk in the boundless power and authority of God's anointing. His supernatural strength and limitless capacity accompany you. Today, you wear the mantle He has draped upon your shoulders, walking in the fullness of His purpose for your life.

With your relationship with God and His Word as your foundation, Woman of God, GO FORWARD. Be released into your divine journey, knowing that your compassion, conduct, character, and commitment are worthy of this high calling and pleasing in His sight. I declare your names, Prophetess Deborah Richardson and Evangelist Victoria Holland, into the atmosphere—your name is now associated with greatness, holiness, humility, love, peace, faith, wisdom, prosperity, integrity, righteousness, grace, and joy. You are a vessel of empowerment, and your legacy will carry the marks of success and excellence.

Go forth and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name, character, and authority of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Teach them to observe all that He has commanded, and know that He is with you, always, even unto the end of time.

The Wisdom We Carry, The Calling We Fulfill

As we receive these words of wisdom from the Five-Fold Ministry, may they become more than principles we remember. May they become truths we embrace, convictions we demonstrate, and spiritual disciplines that guide our daily walk with God.

Let worship be our foundation, perseverance our strength, generosity our expression of love, and faith our constant companion. Let the Word of God renew our minds, His promises inspire our vision, and His presence sustain our spirits.

We have each been called according to God's divine purpose, entrusted with gifts, responsibilities, and assignments designed to advance His Kingdom and strengthen the Body of Christ.

Though our offices, gifts, and assignments may differ, we share a common responsibility: to represent the heart of Christ, proclaim His truth, demonstrate His love, and serve His people with excellence, integrity, and compassion.

May we remain faithful stewards of the anointing entrusted to us, diligent in our preparation, humble in our leadership, and unwavering in our commitment to the work of ministry.

As we continue in our respective callings, may we carry wisdom into every decision, compassion into every encounter, encouragement into every circumstance, and the presence of God into every place He sends us.

May we serve with wisdom, minister with compassion, lead with humility, walk in spiritual authority, and fulfill our divine assignments with unwavering faithfulness. For this is the wisdom we carry, the calling we embrace, and the sacred responsibility we commit ourselves to fulfill.

To God be the glory for the great things He has done, the lives He is transforming, and the generations yet to be impacted through our faithful service.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE FIVE-FOLD MINISTRY

1. Worship Is the Foundation of a Joyful and Victorious Life

Worship is one of the greatest expressions of our love, reverence, and devotion to God. Jesus taught His disciples the importance of prayer and gave them a divine pattern for approaching the Father. Within the Lord's Prayer, we discover powerful principles that guide our relationship with God: praise, priorities, provision, pardon, protection, and the acknowledgment of His eternal power and glory.

True worship extends beyond the words we speak or the songs we sing. It is the posture of a heart surrendered to God, a life that honors His presence, and a spirit that delights in His will. As we cultivate a lifestyle of prayer, praise, and thanksgiving, we deepen our fellowship with Him and strengthen our faith.

Let worship become the foundation upon which you build your life, and let the joy of the Lord continually strengthen your journey. Matthew 6:9–13 (KJV)

"After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen."

2. Persevere with Purpose, Faith, and Unwavering Determination

Every God-given assignment requires faith, patience, courage, and perseverance. The journey toward fulfilling your purpose will present opportunities that stretch your faith, strengthen your character, and develop your spiritual endurance.

Your dreams, aspirations, and divine assignments are worthy of your commitment. Remain steadfast in your pursuit of what God has placed within your heart. Allow every experience to produce wisdom, every challenge to strengthen your resolve, and every season of waiting to deepen your trust in God's faithfulness. Perseverance is the evidence of a heart committed to its divine assignment. When you remain focused upon God's promises and faithful to His direction, you position yourself to accomplish the work entrusted to your hands.

Keep your heart encouraged, your faith active, and your eyes fixed upon the purpose for which God has called you. Luke 9:62 (KJV)

"And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

3. Sow with Purpose, Faith, and Expectation

The principle of sowing and reaping reminds us that what we faithfully invest today has the potential to produce lasting fruit tomorrow. Our seeds may take many forms: our time, our talents, our resources, our prayers, our generosity, and our faithful service to the Kingdom of God.

When we sow into the work of ministry, we participate in something greater than ourselves. We contribute to the advancement of God's Kingdom, the strengthening of His people, and the transformation of lives.

Let your giving be intentional, your generosity sincere, and your faith firmly established in God's Word.

Recognize that every act of obedience and every expression of generosity carries the potential to extend its influence far beyond the moment in which it is given.

Sow with a willing heart, serve with joyful expectation, and trust God with the increase according to His divine wisdom and purpose. Malachi 3:10 (KJV)

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

4. Live with the Expectation of God's Abundant Goodness

Our God is faithful, gracious, and abundant in His goodness. Throughout Scripture, we witness His ability to restore, renew, strengthen, and bless those who place their confidence in Him.

The lives of Job, Joseph, and Daniel remind us that adversity does not have the final word over God's purpose. Their experiences reveal how faithfulness, integrity, patience, and trust in God can sustain us through difficult seasons and prepare us for greater responsibility.

Job experienced restoration after tremendous loss. Joseph rose from adversity into a position of extraordinary influence. Daniel remained faithful to God and was entrusted with great responsibility. Each account reminds us that God is able to work through life's circumstances to accomplish His divine purpose. Approach each new season with gratitude, spiritual discernment, and joyful anticipation. Recognize the blessings already present in your life while remaining open to the new opportunities God may place before you.

Live expectantly, walk faithfully, and rejoice in the assurance that God's goodness and mercy remain with you throughout your journey. Job 42:10 (KJV)

"And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before."

5. Cultivate a Heart That Is Ready to Receive God's Provision

Our Heavenly Father is Jehovah Jireh, the Lord who provides. His wisdom is infinite, His resources are unlimited, and His faithfulness extends throughout every generation.

Learning to receive from God begins with cultivating a heart of faith, gratitude, humility, and trust. We must recognize Him as our ultimate source, acknowledge His goodness, and remain receptive to the many ways He chooses to provide for His children. Divine provision reaches beyond material possessions. God supplies wisdom for our decisions, strength for our assignments, peace for our spirits, grace for our relationships, and the resources necessary to accomplish His will.

As we grow in spiritual maturity, we learn to recognize His provision, steward His blessings responsibly, and become generous vessels through whom His goodness can reach others.

Receive His blessings with gratitude, steward them with wisdom, and allow His abundance to become a testimony of His faithfulness in your life. Philippians 4:19 (KJV)

"But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

6. Speak the Language of Faith, Truth, and Divine Possibility

Our words are powerful instruments of encouragement, instruction, wisdom, and spiritual influence. What we speak has the ability to strengthen faith, inspire hope, restore confidence, and shape the atmosphere of our relationships. As believers, we are called to cultivate conversations that reflect the truth of God's Word and the character of Jesus Christ. Let our words communicate faith rather than fear, encouragement rather than discouragement, and hope rather than despair.

Faith-filled communication begins with a mind renewed by the Word of God. When our thoughts are anchored in His promises, our conversations become opportunities to inspire others, communicate His goodness, and declare our confidence in His faithfulness.

Speak with intention. Encourage with sincerity. Declare God's Word with conviction, and allow your conversations to reflect the hope and assurance you possess through Christ.

Let your words become instruments of life, your conversations expressions of faith, and your testimony a continual declaration of God's goodness. Philippians 4:8 (KJV)

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE FIVE-FOLD MINISTRY

7. Renew Your Mind Daily Through the Power of God's Word

The Word of God is a divine source of wisdom, truth, revelation, and spiritual transformation. Each day, our minds encounter countless thoughts, opinions, influences, and circumstances that compete for our attention. Through the renewing power of God's Word, we can bring our thoughts into alignment with His truth and cultivate a mindset that reflects His wisdom and purpose.

Make spending time in Scripture a sacred priority. Allow the Word to illuminate your understanding, strengthen your convictions, and shape the way you perceive yourself, others, and the world around you. As we consistently meditate upon God's Word, we develop greater spiritual discernment, clarity of purpose, and confidence in His promises. The renewing of our minds becomes an ongoing journey of spiritual growth, bringing our thoughts, attitudes, and decisions into harmony with His divine will.

Let the Word of God become the foundation of your thinking, the source of your wisdom, and the guiding light for every decision you make. Ephesians 5:26 (KJV)

"That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word."

8. Envision God's Promises and Embrace His Divine Possibilities

Faith invites us to look beyond our present circumstances and embrace the possibilities revealed through God's promises. Throughout Scripture, we discover how God inspired His servants to envision a future that extended beyond what their natural eyes could see.

When God spoke to Abraham, He directed his attention toward the heavens and invited him to consider the countless stars. Through this powerful illustration, God gave Abraham a visible reminder of a promise that would unfold according to His divine purpose.

Likewise, we are encouraged to nurture a vision that is rooted in faith and guided by God's Word. Remember the victories He has already brought into your life, reflect upon His faithfulness, and allow His promises to strengthen your confidence concerning the future.

Let your imagination be inspired by His possibilities, your expectations shaped by His wisdom, and your actions guided by obedience to His direction.

See beyond the limitations of the present, embrace the possibilities of God's promises, and walk confidently toward the future He is preparing for you. Genesis 15:5 (KJV)

"And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be."

9. Cultivate the Transforming Power of Praise and Worship

Praise and worship are powerful expressions of our faith, gratitude, reverence, and devotion to God. Through worship, we acknowledge His sovereignty, celebrate His goodness, and invite our hearts into deeper communion with His presence.

Praise strengthens our spiritual perspective. It reminds us that God remains faithful through every season, that His promises are trustworthy, and that His power is greater than any circumstance we may encounter. In the account of David ministering to King Saul, we witness how music became an instrument of comfort and relief. David's skillful playing brought refreshment to Saul during a time of great distress.

This passage reminds us of the meaningful influence that worship, music, and a spirit devoted to God can have upon the atmosphere surrounding us and the condition of our hearts.

As we develop a lifestyle of praise, we cultivate gratitude, strengthen our confidence in God's faithfulness, and create opportunities for His peace and joy to fill our lives.

Let praise continually rise from your heart, worship guide your spirit, and thanksgiving become the atmosphere in which you live and serve. 1 Samuel 16:23 (KJV)

"And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him."

10. Walk in the Dignity and Authority of Your Kingdom Identity

As children of God, we have been called into a life of spiritual purpose, divine inheritance, and Kingdom responsibility. Our identity in Christ establishes a foundation of confidence, dignity, humility, and unwavering faith. Recognizing who we are in Christ transforms the way we think, speak, respond, and conduct ourselves. We are called to demonstrate a character that reflects the excellence of His Kingdom, even when confronted with opposition, misunderstanding, or adversity.

True spiritual authority is demonstrated through wisdom, humility, integrity, self-control, and faithful obedience to God. Those who understand their Kingdom identity learn to maintain spiritual composure in challenging circumstances, extend grace when faced with disrespect, and remain steadfast in their convictions.

The promises of God remind us that our present journey is connected to an eternal inheritance. As we remain faithful and persevere in Christ, we look forward with confidence to the fulfillment of His promises.

Walk with dignity, serve with humility, lead with wisdom, and carry yourself with the confidence of one who belongs to the Kingdom of God. Revelation 3:21 (KJV)

"To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

11. Embrace the Sacred Power of Solitude and Communion with God

There is extraordinary spiritual value in setting aside intentional moments of solitude, prayer, and personal communion with God. In a world filled with responsibilities, conversations, distractions, and competing demands, the discipline of withdrawing into His presence becomes essential to our spiritual well-being.

Solitude provides an opportunity to quiet our thoughts, examine our hearts, renew our strength, and deepen our sensitivity to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Jesus taught the importance of private prayer, encouraging His followers to seek the Father sincerely, away from the distractions and recognition of others. These sacred moments of fellowship nurture spiritual intimacy and allow us to approach our daily responsibilities with renewed clarity, wisdom, and peace. As ministers and servants of God, we must recognize the importance of maintaining a personal relationship with the One who has called us. The effectiveness of our public ministry is strengthened by the sincerity and consistency of our private devotion.

Make room for God's presence, treasure your moments of solitude, and allow your private communion with Him to become the source of strength for your public assignment. Matthew 6:6 (KJV)

"But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

12. Embrace the Gift of Today and Celebrate the Journey of Purpose

Every day is a precious gift from God, filled with opportunities to experience His goodness, fulfill His purpose, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of others. While we look forward with joyful expectation to the promises and possibilities of tomorrow, we must also recognize the extraordinary value of the moments entrusted to us today. Life is a journey of spiritual discovery, growth, service, and transformation. Every season offers opportunities to learn, to love, to give, and to experience the faithfulness of God in new and meaningful ways. Cherish the relationships He has placed in your life. Celebrate the progress you have made. Give thanks for the lessons that have strengthened your faith, and recognize the beauty of His presence in the ordinary moments of everyday living.

The fulfillment of our divine purpose is experienced through the faithful stewardship of each day, each opportunity, and each assignment entrusted to our care.

Be fully present in the life God has given you. Embrace the opportunities before you, serve with gladness, and celebrate the grace that accompanies every step of your journey.

Live purposefully, love generously, serve faithfully, and rejoice in the gift of today, for every moment is an opportunity to glorify God. 2 Corinthians 6:2 (KJV)

"For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

THE APOSTOLIC RELEASE

The Divine Commissioning and Release into Kingdom Assignment

Apostolic release is the divine and formal commissioning of a servant of God who is being sent into a new dimension of purpose, territory, ministry, or marketplace influence. It is not simply an appointment, a title, or a public affirmation. It is a sending. It is the recognition that Heaven has ordained the assignment and that the individual is being released with authority, responsibility, and grace for the next place God has ordained.

This reveals a divine principle: Territory is not meant to be taken in isolation. Vision needs agreement. Movement needs discernment. Authority needs accountability. Strategy needs spiritual intelligence. The Five-Fold Ministry, functioning together in divine unity, represents a powerful partnership in Kingdom leadership. Each office carries a distinct grace, responsibility, and dimension of spiritual authority, working together for the equipping of the saints, the advancement of God's Kingdom, and the fulfillment of His divine purpose.

The Apostle carries the vision, establishes foundations, and provides direction for the assignment. The Prophet brings spiritual discernment, revelation, and sensitivity to the timing and movements of God. The Evangelist carries the message of salvation beyond the walls of the Church, reaching souls, proclaiming the Gospel, and drawing others into the knowledge of Jesus Christ. The Pastor nurtures, protects, guides, and strengthens those entrusted to the ministry, ensuring that the people of God are cared for as the work advances. The Teacher establishes believers in the truth of God's Word, bringing understanding, instruction, and spiritual maturity so that the foundation remains sound and the work continues with integrity.

Together, these five ministerial graces represent a divinely established partnership. The Apostle envisions and builds. The Prophet discerns and proclaims. The Evangelist reaches and gathers. The Pastor nurtures and protects. The Teacher instructs and establishes. Each office contributes to the fulfillment of the whole, and when these graces function in unity, the Kingdom of God advances with order, purpose, and spiritual strength.

Therefore, apostolic release is not only about sending an Apostle into new territory. It is also about recognizing the divine partnerships and spiritual graces required to steward that territory well. The Apostle carries the vision for the territory. The Prophet helps interpret the timing, resources, development, and spiritual conditions necessary for the vision to mature. The Evangelist extends the reach of the vision through the proclamation of the Gospel. The Pastor provides the spiritual care and guidance necessary to sustain those gathered into the work. The Teacher equips and establishes believers in sound doctrine, ensuring that the vision is supported by knowledge, understanding, and biblical truth.

When these graces are aligned, the work is not only launched; it is established, strengthened, sustained, and positioned to impact generations.

Today, we recognize and release you as chosen vessels of God, called to carry vision, establish order, proclaim His truth, nurture His people, and advance the territory He has placed in your hands.

You are not being released merely into titles; you are being released into responsibility. The grace upon your lives is a pioneering grace, a building grace, a nurturing grace, a teaching grace, and an empowering grace. It is the grace to establish what God has ordained and to fulfill what Heaven has authorized.

As an Apostle, you carry the burden of the territory. You are called to see what others have not yet seen, to move where others have not yet moved, and to establish what Heaven has already authorized. Like the driver of a vehicle, you are entrusted with movement, direction, and stewardship. Like the CEO of a company, you must carry the vision with clarity, courage, and accountability.

As a Prophet, you are called to discern the movements of God, interpret His divine direction, and speak His Word with accuracy, wisdom, and spiritual sensitivity. You are entrusted with the responsibility of hearing His heart, recognizing His timing, and helping His people remain aligned with His divine purposes.

As an Evangelist, you are called to carry the Good News of Jesus Christ into the highways, the byways, the communities, and the nations. You are entrusted with the sacred responsibility of proclaiming salvation, awakening faith, and extending the invitation of grace to those who have yet to encounter the transforming love of Jesus Christ.

As a Pastor, you are called to shepherd God's people with compassion, integrity, patience, and spiritual discernment. You are entrusted with the responsibility of nurturing the flock, strengthening the weary, restoring the wounded, and guiding believers toward spiritual maturity and wholeness in Christ.

As a Teacher, you are called to illuminate the truth of God's Word, establish sound doctrine, and equip believers with the knowledge and understanding necessary to live victoriously in Christ. You are entrusted with the responsibility of building strong spiritual foundations upon which generations can stand.

This release affirms that your current assignments have matured into a new dimension. God is sending you forward with authority to gather, build, train, establish, nurture, proclaim, and mobilize. You are being released to take territory with wisdom, to lead with conviction, to serve with compassion, and to carry the vision without compromise.

May your eyes remain fixed upon the assignment. May your hands be strengthened for the work. May your hearts remain sensitive to the voice of the Holy Spirit. May your leadership produce order, expansion, and lasting fruit. May the territory assigned to you be impacted by the grace, wisdom, and authority of God upon your lives.

God's intention for you is to live victoriously and to accomplish that which He has sent you to do. You, the just, must live by faith. Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Today, you must see yourselves as God sees you.

You are blessed indeed. The Lord has enlarged your coasts, and His hand continues to lead you and guide you. You are anointed by God for this journey, called for this assignment, and graced for this territory.

So today, step forward beyond the limitations of your own ability and walk in the power, authority, and anointing of God. Walk in boundless accomplishment, supernatural ability, and divine empowerment. Today, you walk in the authority of the mantles that He has placed upon your lives.

THE APOSTOLIC RELEASE

With your relationship with God and His Word as your foundation, go forward, Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers, released into your journeys and commissioned for the territories assigned to your hands.

May your compassion, your conduct, your character, your conversation, and your commitment be worthy of this calling and pleasing in His sight.

The Pronouncement of Names and Apostolic Release

Today, standing in the authority of Jesus Christ and in recognition of the sacred assignments entrusted to your lives, I release your names into the atmosphere:

Apostle Ave Marie McKee,
Apostle Shari McIntyre,
Pastor Sabrina Cason-Gilmore,
Pastor Anita Ware,
Pastor Chalene Marlowe,
and Evangelist Judith Bonaduce.

I declare that your names are associated with good reputations, godly character, and honorable service in the Kingdom of God.

I declare that your names shall be associated with greatness, holiness, humility, love, peace, faith, wisdom, health, prosperity, integrity, righteousness, grace, joy, vision, wealth, success, and excellence. May your names be spoken with honor, your leadership recognized for integrity, your service remembered for compassion, and your ministries distinguished by the presence and power of Almighty God.

May your names become testimonies of faithfulness, symbols of godly leadership, and reflections of the excellence of Jesus Christ.

As apostolic, prophetic, evangelistic, pastoral, and teaching vessels, may you go forward in divine agreement.

May the Apostle carry the vision with courage, order, authority, and clarity.

May the Prophet navigate the vision with discernment, timing, strategy, wisdom, and accuracy.

May the Evangelist proclaim the Gospel with boldness, compassion, conviction, and the power of the Holy Spirit.

May the Pastor shepherd the people of God with tenderness, strength, patience, and unwavering commitment.

May the Teacher establish the truth of God's Word with clarity, understanding, revelation, and sound doctrine.

May the territory hear the sound of Heaven through your obedience.

May every resource needed for the assignment be released. May every benchmark be met in God's timing. May every door ordained by God open before you, and may every opposing force bow to the authority of Christ.

May your ministry reach beyond the boundaries of your present understanding. May your influence extend beyond the limitations of your natural ability. May the work entrusted to your hands flourish according to the wisdom, timing, and sovereign purpose of Almighty God.

May the generations that follow you encounter the fruit of your obedience, the strength of your foundations, and the lasting impact of your faithful service.

THE GREAT COMMINSSION

Go forth and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Go forth representing His name, reflecting His nature, demonstrating His character, and exercising the authority entrusted to you through Jesus Christ.

Teach them to observe all things whatsoever He has commanded you. And, lo, He shall be with you always, even unto the end of the world.

The Apostolic Benediction

Now unto Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we could ask or imagine, according to the power that worketh in us.

Unto Him who is able to keep us from falling and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

Unto Him who sustains our bodies, souls, and spirits, who strengthens our hands for the work, establishes our feet upon His Word, and empowers us to fulfill the assignments entrusted to our care.

To the only wise God, our Savior, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, now, this moment, henceforth, the next moment, and forever, every moment thereafter.

Hallelujah! Amen!

Holy Communion

1 Corinthians 11:23-34 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

(ISAIAH 53:3-5) He is despised and ^[d]rejected by men, A Man of ^[e]sorrows and acquainted with ^[f]grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. ⁴ Surely He has borne our ^[g]griefs And carried our ^[h]sorrows; Yet we ^[i]esteemed Him stricken, ^[j]Smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But He was wounded^[k] for our transgressions, He was ^[l]bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes^[m] we are healed.

Let Us Pray

Father, I bless this now and I declare every attribute, every blessing of the new covenant flows to your sons and daughters. As we agree and as we act upon your Word. For you have proven to us that communion, the Lord's table, is a weapon for the new creation. And it is the wisdom of God to keep the new creation functioning at optimal level. This is not just a sacrament, or a sacrifice, and it is not just an ordinance. But it is the wisdom of God. In Jesus name Amen.

Repeat after me:

Lord I receive, Your body
Given for me
Your word declares
You took my sin
My sickness
My poverty
And because you have taken these,
It is illegal
For me, To carry them
It is illegal
For Satan to charge me twice

For that which you
Have already paid for once
So I declare
My sins,
All of them,
Are remitted
My body healed,
And I declare
I am prospering
Increasing more and more
In Jesus name
Let us all eat together

Lift the cup.

Remember that Jesus said this cup is the new agreement. It is the new covenant in my blood. What is that agreement? Hebrews 8 declares it from Jeremiah, where God says I will be merciful to their unfaithfulness and their sins and lawless deeds I will remember no more. The blood of Jesus declares that there is nothing standing between you the goodness of God, when you accept the finished work of Jesus on your behalf.

Repeat after me :

Lord I thank you every benefit
every blessing of the new covenant is mine. I am disqualified from no good thing.

Not based, On my performance
But on what Jesus
Has finished For me.
I am accepted
In the beloved
In Jesus name
let's all drink together

THE OPENING INVOCATION

Hear now the testimony of the Holy Scriptures concerning the identity, majesty, sovereignty, and eternal authority of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“I AM Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.”

I AM the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End, the Almighty!

I AM He who liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I AM alive for evermore. Amen! And I have the keys of hell and of death.

I AM the Son of Man, the Son of God, the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

I AM the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the Root of David, the One who has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals.

I AM the Lamb who was slain, and yet I live forevermore!

I AM the Shepherd who leads His sheep unto living fountains of waters.

I AM the One through whom God shall wipe away every tear from your eyes.

I AM your Salvation and your Strength!

I AM Jesus Christ, the Righteous One, who has overcome the accuser of the brethren, the one who accused them before our God day and night. Through My blood and the word of their testimony, My people overcome!

I AM able to save to the uttermost those who come unto God through Me, for I ever live to make intercession for them.

I AM the Anchor of your soul, both sure and steadfast.

I AM the True Vine, and you are the branches. He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without Me, ye can do nothing.

I AM the Apostle and High Priest of your profession.

I AM God manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

I AM the Son whom God hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds. I have, by inheritance, obtained a more excellent name than the angels.

Now, look unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith, who, for the joy that was set before Me, endured the cross, despising the shame, and am set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

God now commandeth all men everywhere to repent, for He hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom He hath ordained. He hath given assurance unto all men in that He hath raised Me from the dead.

I AM Jesus Christ, the Righteous, your Advocate with the Father.

I AM the propitiation for your sins, and not for yours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

I AM the Prince of Life, whom God hath raised from the dead!

I AM THE ALMIGHTY!

I AM THE KING OF KINGS AND THE LORD OF LORDS!

I AM THE ALPHA AND THE OMEGA, THE BEGINNING AND THE END, THE FIRST AND THE LAST!

I AM JESUS CHRIST, THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER!

So therefore we acknowledge of His Divine Presence

And it is before this great God, this Eternal King, this Risen Savior, this Sovereign Lord, that we have gathered today.

We gather in the presence of the One who calls, the One who chooses, the One who anoints, the One who appoints, and the One who sends.

We acknowledge that all power belongs to Him, all authority proceeds from Him, all wisdom is found in Him, and all glory shall forever return to Him.

For it is He who gave some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, and some Pastors and Teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, and for the edifying of the Body of Christ. Today, we stand as witnesses to the continuing work of His divine purpose.

We have gathered to recognize those whom He has called, to affirm the sacred assignments entrusted to their hands, and to consecrate and commission them for the work of ministry.

We come in reverence, acknowledging the weight of this sacred responsibility.

We come in thanksgiving, celebrating the faithfulness of the God who has brought us to this appointed moment.

We come in joyful expectation, believing that the same God who calls is faithful to equip, establish, strengthen, and sustain those whom He sends.

For we understand that this is more than a ceremony. It is a sacred acknowledgment of divine purpose, a public affirmation of spiritual responsibility, and a solemn recognition of the call of God upon the lives of His servants.

We recognize that every gift comes from Him, every anointing flows from Him, every assignment is established through Him, and every life surrendered to His will becomes an instrument through which His glory may be revealed.

The Invocation of God's Presence and Blessing

And now, Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, in the precious and matchless name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we invoke Your divine presence upon this sacred gathering.

Holy Spirit, we welcome Your presence, Your guidance, Your wisdom, and Your divine direction.

May Your presence govern everything that is spoken.

May Your wisdom direct everything that is declared.

May Your Spirit guide every act of consecration.

May Your anointing rest upon every life being set apart for Your service.

May every prayer ascend before Your throne, every declaration remain in agreement with Your Word, and every act of ministry bring honor and glory to Your holy name.

Let the atmosphere be filled with reverence for Your presence, gratitude for Your goodness, and expectation for the fulfillment of Your divine purpose.

May every individual gathered here recognize the sacredness of this hour and the significance of the work You have ordained.

We submit the order of this service, the words of every speaker, the prayers of every minister, and the hearts of all who have assembled into Your sovereign hands.

Let Your Word go forth with clarity.

Let Your truth be proclaimed with boldness.

Let Your people be strengthened through encouragement.

Let every person being consecrated and commissioned be reminded of the sacred responsibility, spiritual authority, and divine grace that accompany the call to ministry.

May this gathering become a testimony of Your faithfulness, a celebration of Your divine calling, and an occasion in which Your name alone is glorified.

For this is Your house, these are Your servants, this is Your work, and this is Your appointed time.

The Formal Opening of the Sacred Service

And so, in the matchless, mighty, magnificent, and sovereign name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, we acknowledge His presence, submit ourselves to His authority, and dedicate these sacred proceedings to His glory.

LET EVERY HEART BE PREPARED!

LET EVERY SPIRIT BE ATTENTIVE!

LET EVERY VOICE BE LIFTED IN THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE!

For the King of Glory is worthy!

The Lord of Hosts is exalted!

The Lamb of God is victorious!

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed!

The Alpha and Omega reigns forever!

And the name of Jesus Christ shall be glorified in this place!

And now, by the grace of Almighty God, under the authority of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and in acknowledgment of the sacred call upon the lives of His servants, I DECLARE THIS SERVICE OF CONSECRATION AND COMMISSIONING OFFICIALLY OPENED!

TO GOD BE THE GLORY!

HALLELUJAH!

AMEN AND AMEN!

The Benediction -

He is the King of righteousness, He is the King of the ages, and He is the King of Heaven. He is the king of Glory. He is the King of Kings. He is the Lord of lords. Who is He? MY GOD

The Heavens declare the glory of GOD and the firmament showeth His handiwork. He is a sovereign King. No means of measurement can define His limitless love. No far reaching telescope can bring into visibility the coastline of His shore less supply. No barrier can hinder Him from pouring His blessings on me MY GOD

He is enduringly strong. He is entirely sincere. He is eternally steadfast. He is immortally graceful. He is infinitely powerful He is impartially merciful. MY GOD

He is the greatest phenomenon that has ever crossed the horizon of this world. He is God's Son. He is the sinner's Savior. He is the centerpiece of civilization. He stands in the solitude of Himself. He is honest and He is unique. He is unparallel. He is unprecedented. MY GOD

He is the loftiest idea in literature. He is the highest personality in philosophy. He is the supreme problem in higher criticism. He is the fundamental doctrine of true theology. He is the core; the necessary was to the Father. He is the miracle of the ages. He is the superlative of everything good that I can choose to call Him. He is the only one who qualifies to be my all sufficiency. MY GOD

He is strong in my weakness. He's available when I am tempted and tried. He sympathizes and He saves. He strengthens and sustains, He guards and He guides. He heals, He cleanses, He forgives the sinner. He discharges debtors. He delivers the captive. He defends the feeble. He blesses the young. He serves the unfortunate. He regards the aged. He beatifies the meek and He rewards the diligent. MY GOD

He is the King to knowledge. He is the wellspring of wisdom. He is the doorway of deliverance. He is the pathway of peace. He is the roadway of righteousness; He is the highway of holiness. He is the gateway of glory. MY GOD

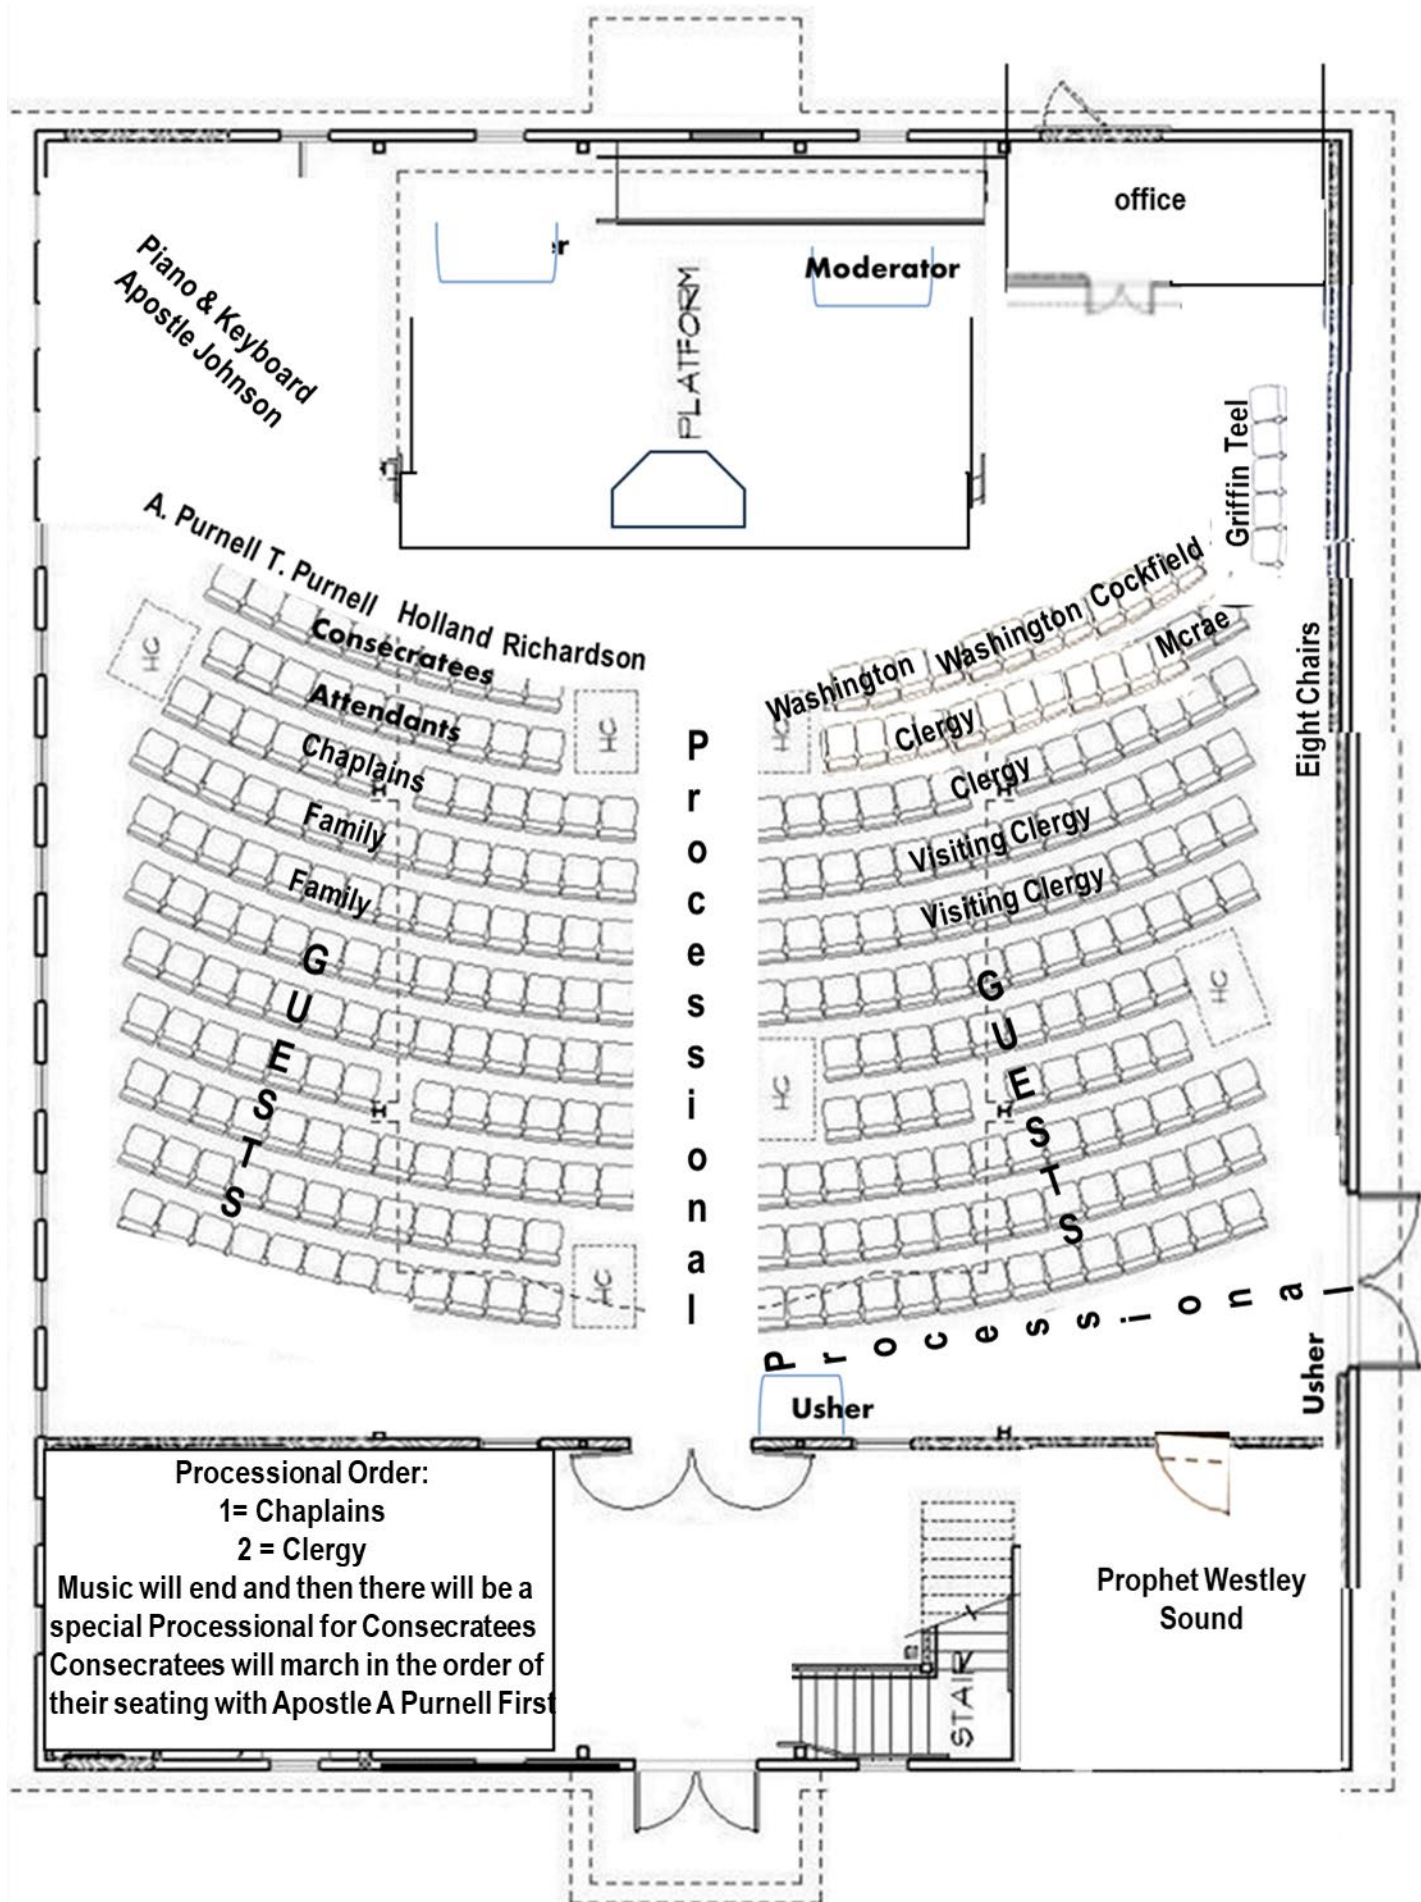

His office is manifold. His promise is sure. His life is matchless. His goodness is limitless. His mercy is everlasting. MY GOD

His love never changes, His Word is enough. His grace is sufficient. His reign is forever. His yoke is easy. His burden is light. MY GOD

The Pharisees couldn't stand Him. Pilate couldn't find fault in Him. Herod couldn't kill Him. Death couldn't handle Him. The grave couldn't hold Him. MY GOD

He's incredible. He's uncomprehend able. He's invincible. He's irresistible. I can't get Him out of my mind. I can't get Him off my hand, I can't out live Him and I can't live without Him. MY GOD.

Now unto Him who is able to do exceeding, abundantly, above all we can ask or imagine, according to the power that works within us—unto Him who sustains our bodies, souls, and spirits, who keeps us from stumbling and presents us blameless with exceeding joy—to the only wise God our Saviour, be all glory, majesty, dominion, and power, now and forevermore. Hallelujah! Amen!
